Although Summer is winding down, there are still plenty of sunny, warm days in the coming month to take advantage of. Why not also take advantage of our respite services for a spouse who needs extra care, or maybe you know of someone who could use a little vacation but is not comfortable leaving their loved one alone. We offer 24-hour, all inclusive care in both assisted living and memory care at a very affordable daily rate up to a 14-day stay.

Contact either Nancy at 716-7183 or Peggy at 716-7397 for more information.

The Sales/Leasing/Admissions team hopes that you have been enjoying these glorious summer days, staying active and taking advantage of the many trips, activities, projects and local events in The Village of East Harbor and the local community.

The coming month not only brings colorful changes and refreshing New Baltimore temperatures, but also Art on the Bay over Labor Day weekend and our annual Holiday Shopping Bazaar in November. Enjoy!

September is here!

2016 is our year to be studying, The Fruit of the Spirit as laid out in the book of Galatians chapter 5. This month we are concentrating on Self - Control!

Self-control

ENKRATEIA, (Greek), meaning:
Infused or within; kratos, vigor, dominion, power, strength.
Having a great force within but under control.
Restraint exercised over one's own impulses, emotions or desires.

Self - control is the ability to live with restraints.

Self-control is not just a puritanical virtue. It is a key psychological trait that breeds success at work and play—and in overcoming life's hardships

Article by: Roy F. Braumeister

The ability to regulate our impulses and desires is indispensable to success in living and working with others. People with good control over their thought processes, emotions and behaviors not only flourish in school and in their jobs but are also healthier, wealthier and more popular. And they have better intimate relationships and are more trusted by others. What is more, they are less likely to go astray by getting arrested, becoming addicted to drugs or experiencing unplanned events. They even live longer.

Brazilian writer Paulo Coelho "If you conquer yourself, then you will conquer the world."

Let's invest in ourselves this month by focusing on self-control! Join me in the chapel.

Many of us can Remember the "Old Interurban Days." by Fred Pankow

The following was taken from an articled in the South Macomb News, from Thursday, March 11, 1954.

"With the opening of Eastgate Shopping center set for March 29 and the widening of Gratiot avenue...attention is drawn to the history of the old interurban lines which ran out Gratiot Avenue. ...one of the chief landmarks of the village of Roseville was the old powerhouse and car barns of the old Detroit to Port Huron interurban line which stood near what is the present site of Eastgate.

"...the Rapid Railway...was among the very earliest of the high speed electric interurban railways. At the peak of the interurban systems, in the early 1900's, it was possible to travel from Detroit to almost any point in the Midwest by trolley.

"The line to Mount Clemens was completed in 1895. It was extended to Port Huron in 1900.

"...The interurban maintained a half hourly schedule from 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. between Detroit and Marine City, and hourly over the remainder of the line. They made the 21 mile run from Detroit to Mount Clemens in 45 minutes.

"The interurban also carried freight and were spectacular successes as milk trains--until motor trucks became popular.

"The last run of the Rapid Railway was in 1929, but the DSR ran cars over its tracks for some time later."

I remember riding the Detroit Street Railway for many years on Gratiot, from Detroit to Eight Mile Road; where the cars turned around and headed back to Detroit. Many of the steel rails north of Eight Mile Road were torn up for use of the metal in the war effort. When I was born East Pointe, earlier known as East Detroit, was known as Halfway. Ten Mile Road was halfway between Detroit and Mount Clemens. East Pointe is located roughly between Eight Mile and Ten Mile Roads.

The Clerical Department would like to extend a warm welcome to Jayln, our newest receptionist, at the Village.

Jayln is currently attending St. Clair Community college to obtain a degree in Early Childhood Education. When Jayln is not in school or busy working; her two cats and a dog grab a lot of her attention.

Jayln has been at the Village since March 2016 and has been a great asset to the campus. Her big smile and friendly manner is enjoyed by residents, staff and guests. (Wendy's chicken nuggets are Jalyn's favorite fast food).
